

Doors can play a pivotal role when it comes to safely caring for your loved ones. So it's important to think about one that can enhance the protection of your family. Simpson's 20-minute fire-rated doors are constructed with fire-rated core materials and a unique manufacturing process designed to offer fire resistance and peace of mind. And you won't have to sacrifice beauty for safety – each door exudes the charm of genuine wood like every other Simpson door.
